Sir,

With reference to your official memo N. 453 dated 22nd July 1905 forwarding for report petition of Krishnappa, archak of the Sri-vatsa Gowri Sankara devaru temple at Solur Grama, Devanhalli Taluk praying for the resumption and restoration of certain alienated Inam lands endowed to the Institution I have the honor to state that the temple is endowed with a Vrittie in the Godi village and that there has been no alienation of the same. It is understood that the Godidars have made arrangements for the proper discharge of the puja and have given to the archak the produce of the lands. The petitioner has accordingly given a statement that he has no further complaint to make.

2. The vernacular papers are forwarded for reference and return.

I have the honor to be,
